

Participant Evaluation

1) What are your thoughts on the guidebook overview?

“A very comprehensive guidebook and good tool for the semester”

“Well Done”

“Good”

“Very thorough”

“A good walk through – thorough but not tedious”

“A good resource to refer to as questions arise – Fortunately I have a great department and a semester of experience so this is a great supplement.”

2) Do you feel you have a better feel for what types of campus resources exist?

All “Yes” responses with the following comments:

“I’ll talk about the tutoring with my students”

“Quite a lot”

“Definitely – guidebook seems to have all resources addressed.”

“The beginning of the semester was a bit confusing, so I think this workshop is very valuable to put questions to rest – parking, Rambler, etc...”

3) How did you like the teaching workshop? What did you learn from it? Are there any changes you would suggest to improve it?

“Addressed pertinent issues for the semester. Guest speakers were a bonus and broke up overwhelming amounts of information.”

“Well organized”

“Would suggest having it sooner than right before the semester begins”

“Make sure to include RAVE alert now. Introductions to people on campus like James Vigil and library staff are very helpful to have people to “know” around campus.”

4) How were the facilities and service (room, equipment, food, etc.) throughout the workshop? What would you change and/or improve?

“A-OK”

“Good – no change”

“Excellent”

“Everything was fine”

“All nice – thanks for the dinner.”

5) Do you have any suggestions for future workshops? Any content or topic areas you think would be valuable to explore in a workshop? Please offer suggestions.

“Having student guest speaker is/would be a good idea. It’s always interesting getting a different point of view.”

“The info from the [ASC] was a great asset to the presentation. Also the IT Tech to help getting online.”

6) Please provide an overall commentary/evaluation on the workshop and/or its facilitators. Use the back if necessary.

“Very helpful – thank you.”

“The materials are excellent. Dr. Austin did a very good job.”

“All facilitators were on time and professional, yet very easy to approach.”
