

TIRED OF THE CLASSROOM?
STEP OUTSIDE!

FOSL

The Focus on Student Learning Series

JOIN US DURING THESE OPEN FORUMS TO DISCUSS ASPECTS OF LEARNING THAT GO BEYOND THE REALM OF THE TRADITIONAL CLASSROOM.

Tues., February 14, 12-1pm: THE GATEWAY PROGRAM (Rumsey Room)

LEARNING OUTSIDE
CLASSROOM

Invite your students on a “Journey of Learning” by teaching a Gateway Course. Find out more about this program from the Director, Quincy Adams, as well as from faculty who have offered such courses time and time again.

Presented by: Sylvia Shurbutt, Betty Ellzey, Rhonda Smith, & Quincy Adams

Wednesday, March 29, 12-1pm: INTERNSHIPS (Rumsey Room)

Internships are powerful learning opportunities for students in any department. Hear about both traditional and alternative experiences students have undertaken from faculty members who have encouraged student participation in internships.

Presented by: Stephanie Slocum-Schaffer, Kevin Williams, Geri Crawley-Woods & Anna Devito

Tuesday, April 11, 12-1pm: SERVICE LEARNING (Rumsey Room)

College students can do more for the community than support the local pub scene! Hear about service learning opportunities from Holly Frye, Director of Student Community Services, as well as from faculty members who have encouraged students to get involved in the community “beyond” the campus.

Presented by: Holly Frye, Alan Tinkler and Betty Ellzey
