The selection process for the Shepherd University Civility Response Team (CRT) will include several criteria. One of which is the following application. We will screen applicants based on the information you provide. Therefore, please be thorough in answering the following questions and use additional space if necessary.

Please remember that all candidates selected for the CRT program will be required to attend training between 8am-4:30pm on Friday, May 30, 2008.

- 1. Please explain why you are interested in being a member of the CRT?
- 2. Why do you feel the CRT is an important part of Shepherd University?
- 3. Please list and describe any relevant courses, training, programs, workshops or work experiences that you think might contribute or enhance your involvement as a member of the CRT (e.g. diversity training, general workshops on oppression, racism or heterosexism, etc.).
- 4. What do you consider to be some of the major causes of conflict around race, religion, ethnicity and sexual orientation (i.e., homosexual, heterosexual and bisexual)?
- 5. What are some of the qualifications you possess, which would be beneficial to the CRT?
- 6. What skills do you think you would need to acquire to be an effective helper to someone experiencing intolerance at Shepherd University?

Please return the completed application to Betsy Sheets, Gardiner Hall – Ground Floor, or via email: esheets@shepherd.edu no later than Friday, March 28, 2008.
