

Master of BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Whether you're a business professional seeking the skills needed to advance or a newcomer to the field of business, Shepherd's M.B.A. program can help you realize your potential and achieve your career objectives. Develop a global perspective and learn to communicate effectively with individuals from diverse cultural, academic, and professional backgrounds. Build your résumé through collaborative research with faculty or an internship with an influential leader in your area of concentration. Graduate with the knowledge and confidence needed to succeed, all while balancing work and family life. The Shepherd University Martinsburg Center provides a flexible course schedule and a hybrid in-class/online format to ensure the M.B.A. program is designed specifically to fit your schedule, your budget, and your goals.

Accredited by the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education (IACBE), Shepherd is one of four colleges in West Virginia with an IACBE-accredited M.B.A. program. Students will receive valuable education in a classroom setting and practical experience through the program's partnerships with businesses and entrepreneurs.

The Master of Business Administration is a 36-credit hour program. Students will complete their coursework with a flexible set of electives or select a concentration in health administration, public management, and sport management. Here, students work in a collaborative environment with faculty mentors in an open exchange of ideas and information. In the internship experience, students are exposed to new ideas and put theory into practice through contact with influential leaders from a variety of companies and industries.

M.B.A. Foundations Program

Students admitted to the Shepherd M.B.A. program must meet three content area prerequisites: accounting, statistics, and economics. Foundational courses at the undergraduate level must have been taken within the last seven years with a grade of B or higher. Applicants who lack this undergraduate coursework can fulfill the foundational requirements in one of three ways:

- Taking the appropriate graduate foundational coursework at the graduate level (foundational courses do not count toward the M.B.A.)
- Passing the appropriate CLEP test(s).
- Submitting a portfolio of work-related experience and requesting an evaluation of academic coursework by the M.B.A. coordinator. Applicants may begin the M.B.A. program while completing their prerequisite courses.

■ Accreditation

Shepherd University's M.B.A. program is accredited by the International Assembly for Collegiate Business Education and the Higher Learning Commission.
