A SOLDIERS TRILOGY – IN FOUR PARTS

LEON BATES, PIANIST

Tuesday, March 27 at 8:00 pm in the Frank Arts Center Theater

To honor National Vietnam War Veterans Day, the Department of Music at Shepherd University together with the United States Veterans Art Program (USVAP) will present this signature concert event. Renowned pianist Leon Bates will perform A Soldiers Trilogy – In Four Parts by composer James-Kimo Williams. Williams will provide program notes and an interactive discussion before each of the four piano sonatas, speaking to his tour of duty in 1970 and how music helped him to express those experiences by connecting his work to his Vietnam experience and being black in America. Doors to the Frank Center Theater will open at 7:00pm. Patrons will be guided to a gallery exhibition of works of veteran artists. A dessert reception where patrons can meet the artist and composer follows the concert. $15 general admission • $10 Shepherd faculty, staff and alumni, senior citizens, and ages 18 & under • FREE for active-duty military, veterans, and Shepherd University students.
