Undergraduate Civil War Semester Application

Shepherd University's Department of History and George Tyler Moore Center for the Study of the Civil War (GTMC) will immerse a select group of undergraduate students from across the country in a semester-long study of the Civil War era. This program is designed for college juniors and seniors who have the permission from their current University to participate in the Civil War Semester. Questions may be directed to Dr. James Broomall, coordinator of the Civil War Semester, at jbroomal@shepherd.edu.
