

ALLIES FOR APPALACHIA

Endower

*Dr. Ben Martz
Drs. Sylvia & Ray Shurbutt*

Endower

Catherine Irwin

Sustainer

*Dr. Marianne Alexander
Marellen Aberne
Dr. Todd Cimino-Johnson
Tamara & Melvin Cole
Jennifer Gerholdt
Deborah & Michael Zupecz
Elinor S. Ross
Paul & Lisa Welch
Jack L. Young*

Sponsor

*Daryl Glenney
Rebecca Kruger
Amanda Merkel
Sean Murtagh
Jean C. Neely
Kathryn Ray
Betty & Harold Snyder
Randy Underwood
Daniel & Jeannette VanBellegem
E.J. Wade*

Supporter

*Mark Arnold
Mel Davis
Carolyn Rodis
Robin Talbert
Carolee Youngblood*

Allies for Appalachia are a group of socially conscious and educationally minded individuals supporting the work and community outreach of the Center for Appalachian Studies and Communities at Shepherd University and its campus programs, with the goal of telling the Appalachian story and enhancing the state and region both economically and culturally.

For information about the Appalachian Studies Program and to become an Ally for Appalachia visit www.shepherd.edu/appalachian/allies-for-appalachia

SHEPHERD UNIVERSITY
150th Anniversary

Scarborough Society Lecture

Challenges of the Global Village and the Ties that Bind

Barbara Kingsolver

2022 Recipient of Appalachian Heritage Writer's Award
2022 Appalachian Heritage Writer-in-Residence
2022 West Virginia State Common Read Author

September 29, 2022

7 p.m.

Frank Arts Center

Shepherd University
APPALACHIAN STUDIES

Shepherd
UNIVERSITY
FOUNDATION

Special Thanks

The West Virginia Humanities Council for its support of the 2022 Writer-in-Residence and Heritage Writer's Award

and

The West Virginia Center for the Book for its support of the 2022 West Virginia Fiction Competition

and

The Fiction Competition Judges

David O. Hoffman, anthology editor

Dr. James Pate, creative writing teacher

Mary Barker, anthology editor

Celebrating

Shepherd University

The Center for Appalachian Studies and Communities

Established in 2018

WELCOME FROM SHEPHERD UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Dr. Mary J.C. Hendrix

PRESENTATION OF 2022 APPALACHIAN HERITAGE WRITER'S AWARD TO BARBARA KINGSOLVER

Presented by

Dr. Sylvia Bailey Shurbutt

Director of the Shepherd University Center for Appalachian Studies and Communities

PRESENTATION OF THE 2022 WEST VIRGINIA FICTION COMPETITION AWARDS

Presented by

Barbara Kingsolver

2022 Appalachian Heritage Writer-in-Residence

Heather Campbell

West Virginia Center for the Book

FIRST PRIZE, $500

Lisa Taka Younis Shepherdstown, West Virginia
"Lambs"

SECOND PRIZE, $100

Pat Donohoe Shepherdstown, West Virginia
"Close Up and Far Away"

THIRD PRIZE, $100

Noche Gauthier Harpers Ferry, West Virginia
"Hymnals"

JUDGE'S CHOICE AWARD, $100

Nadia Madenspacher Gerrardstown, West Virginia
8th-grade student at Mountain Ridge Middle School
"The Cliff"

FICTION AWARD FINALISTS

Kassidy Jordan Point Pleasant, West Virginia
"Falling"

Carter Warhurst Shepherdstown, West Virginia
"Junior's Home"

James Frye Shenandoah Junction, West Virginia
"Blackwater"

THE SCARBOROUGH LECTURE

"Challenges of the Global Village and the Ties that Bind"

Barbara Kingsolver

RECEPTION

Frank Center Atrium