

APPALACHIAN HERITAGE WRITER-IN-RESIDENCE AND FESTIVAL

REMAINING ACTIVITIES

www.shepherd.edu/ahwirweb/manillaschedule

Wednesday, September 29

- 9:30 a.m., Marie Manilla Reading from The Patron Saint of Ugly to Spring Mills High School and Martinsburg Public Library, streamed live on Youtube*
- Noon, Luncheon with Shepherdstown Library Nourishing Literacy Giving Circle, Bavarian Inn
- 7 p.m., The Writing Life*, with Marie Manilla, reception to follow, Robert C. Byrd Center for Congressional History and Education

Thursday, September 30

- 8 a.m., Marie Manilla Reading from The Patron Saint of Ugly to Washington High and Martinsburg High honors students, streamed live on Youtube*
- 3-4:30 p.m., Writer's master class* with Marie Manilla, Robert C. Byrd Center for Congressional History and Education
- 7 p.m., Scarborough Society keynote and AHWIR Awards Ceremony*, with Marie Manilla, reception to follow, Robert C. Byrd Center for Congressional History and Education

Friday, October 1

- 7 p.m.: "Fried Green Tomatoes," a story of redemption and forgiveness, screening and film discussion Shepherdstown Film Society with Dr. Benjamin Bankhurst, Robert C. Byrd Center for Congressional History and Education and Zoom (<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/86284263959>).

Monday, October 11

- 6:30 p.m., "1991 the Stars Aligned Over Shepherdstown: A Wonder Tale"* Shepherd Speaks StoryCorps project with Ed Herendeen, presented by president Mary J.C. Hendrix, Frank Center

Event is live-streamed on Shepherd University's YouTube Channel, link can be found at www.shepherd.edu/ahwir/appalachian-culture-and-studies-links*

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Dr. Sylvia Bailey Shurbutt
sshurbut@shepherd.edu

Rachael Meads
rmeads@shepherd.edu

The Center for Appalachian Studies and Communities hosts many lectures, concerts, events, and competitions throughout the year.

For more information on the Center, its degree programs, events, and outreach — or to donate to the Center — visit www.shepherd.edu/appalachian

SHEPHERD
UNIVERSITY
150th Anniversary

A Celebration of Appalachian Song, Storytelling, and Photographic Art

The Anthology of Appalachian Writers: Dorothy
Allison Volume XIII

September 28

7 p.m.

Robert C. Byrd Center for Congressional History and Education

Special thanks to

The West Virginia Center for the Book
The West Virginia Library Commission
The Shepherd University Foundation and
Dorothy Allison,
2020 Appalachian Heritage Writer-in-Residence

ANTHOLOGY OF APPALACHIAN WRITERS 2021 EDITORS

Dr. Sylvia Bailey Shurbutt
David O. Hoffman
Natalie Sypolt
Aneyla Dozier

PHOTOGRAPHIC ART CURATOR

Michael Mendez
Shepherd University Photography/Computer Imagery Program

WELCOME

Dr. Ben Martz
Shepherd University Provost

PRESENTATION OF 2021 ANTHOLOGY PHOTOGRAPHIC ART AWARD

Where I Come From
Kari Gunter-Seymour
Honorable Mention, Sisters by Ellen Wade
Honorable Mention, On the Face of It by Rachel Herbaugh

STORIES AND POETRY FROM APPALACHIA

Ellen Wade reading "One Dollar She Has Given Me," "Color Blind," and "So, She Told Him"
Kathleen Furbie reading "Virulent Love"
Marc Harshman reading "Justice," "Gerald," and poetry selections from Volume XIII

PHOTOGRAPHIC ARTISTS IN THE ANTHOLOGY

Morning Fog
Local Mall
Overgrown
On the Face of It (Honorable Mention)
Together
Rachel Herbaugh
Stranded
Randi Ward
Grotto in Silhouette
Stone, Rust, Gold
Through an Unopened Window
Sunshine and Climbing Vine
Where I Come From (First Prize)
Kari Gunter-Seymour
Lough Don, Ireland 2014
Return to the Home Place, Sand Mountain, Alabama
Dr. Sylvia Bailey Shurbutt
Sisters (Honorable Mention)
Ellen Wade

RECEPTION, BOOK SIGNING, PHOTOGRAPHY ART EXHIBIT

Scarborough Reading Room

VIRTUAL ART TOUR

www.shepherd.edu/ahwirweb/allison/schedule