

APPALACHIAN HERITAGE WRITER-IN-RESIDENCE AND FESTIVAL AND CENTER FOR APPALACHIAN STUDIES AND COMMUNITIES

REMAINING ACTIVITIES

www.shepherd.edu/ahwirweb/manilla/schedule

Friday, October 1

- 7 p.m.: “Fried Green Tomatoes,” a story of redemption and forgiveness, screening and film discussion Shepherdstown Film Society with Dr. Benjamin Bankhurst, Robert C. Byrd Center for Congressional History and Education and Zoom (<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/86284263959>).

Monday, October 11

- 6:30 p.m., “1991 the Stars Aligned Over Shepherdstown: A Wonder Tale”*
Shepherd Speaks StoryCorps project with Ed Herendeen, presented by president Mary J.C. Hendrix, Frank Center

Event is live-streamed on Shepherd University’s YouTube Channel, link can be found at www.shepherd.edu/ahwir/appalachian-culture-and-studies-links*

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Dr. Sylvia Bailey Shurbutt
sshurbut@shepherd.edu

Rachael Meads
rmeads@shepherd.edu

The Center for Appalachian Studies and Communities hosts many lectures, concerts, events, and competitions throughout the year.

For more information on the Center, its degree programs, events, and outreach — or to donate to the Center — visit www.shepherd.edu/appalachian

SHEPHERD UNIVERSITY
150th Anniversary

Scarborough Society Lecture

Other People’s Shoes: Empathy, Art, and Fiction of

Marie Manilla

2021 Recipient of Appalachian Heritage Writer’s Award
Appalachian Heritage Writer-in-Residence
West Virginia State Common Read Author

September 30, 2021

7 p.m.

Robert C. Byrd Center for Congressional History and Education

Shepherd University
APPALACHIAN STUDIES

Shepherd
UNIVERSITY
FOUNDATION

Special Thanks to the

West Virginia Humanities Council for its support of the 2021 Writer-in-Residence

and

The West Virginia Center for the Book and the West Virginia
Library Commission for their support of the 2021 West
Virginia Fiction Competition and Anthology

and

The Shepherd University President's Club for its support of Center for Appalachian Studies 2021 Outreach

Celebrating

Shepherd University
The Center for Appalachian Studies and Communities
Established in 2018

WELCOME FROM THE SCARBOROUGH SOCIETY

Martin L. Keesecker
Scarborough Society Vice President

GREETINGS FROM SHEPHERD UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Dr. Mary J.C. Hendrix

PRESENTATION OF 2021 APPALACHIAN HERITAGE

WRITER'S AWARD TO MARIE MANILLA

Presented by
Dr. Sylvia Bailey Shurbutt
Director of the Shepherd University Center for Appalachian Studies and Communities

PRESENTATION OF THE 2021 WEST VIRGINIA FICTION COMPETITION AWARDS

Presented by
Marie Manilla
2021 Appalachian Heritage Writer-in-Residence

FIRST PRIZE, $500

D. W. Gregory
Shepherdstown, West Virginia
"Mr. Kindness"

SECOND PRIZE, $100

Seán Patrick Rocco Duffy
Wheeling, West Virginia
"The Wake"

THIRD PRIZE, $100

M. Lynne Squires
Scott Depot, West Virginia
"What He Didn't Hear"

JUDGE'S CHOICE AWARD, $100

Noche Gauthier
Harpers Ferry, West Virginia
"Tulips"

FICTION AWARD FINALISTS

Lynn Swanson
Hedgesville, West Virginia
"Motel"

Lois Spencer

Belpre, Ohio
"Wild Geese"

Stephen Bartlett

Shepherdstown, West Virginia
"Spirit of Kind Feather"

Julie Becraft-Shehan

Harpers Ferry, West Virginia
"Ties the Bind"

Kandi Ellison

Belpre, Ohio
"Dog Days"

THE SCARBOROUGH LECTURE

Somebody Else's Shoes: Empathy, Art, and Fiction
Marie Manilla

RECEPTION AND BOOK SIGNING

Byrd Atrium