The responses to the following questions are key to serving on the Shepherd University Civility Response Team (CRT). Please be thorough in answering them. They will aid in selection and subsequent training. Provide responses as an attachment.

- 1. Please explain why you are interested in being a member of the CRT?
- 2. Part of CRT mission is to “promote respectful treatment of all Shepherd community members.” What suggestions do you have to promote this ideal?
- 3. Please list and describe any relevant courses, training, programs, workshops or work experiences that you think might contribute or enhance your involvement as a member of the CRT (e.g. diversity training, general workshops on issues of oppression, privilege, intolerance, etc.).
- 4. For purposes of training, what skills would you need to be an effective helper to someone experiencing intolerance at Shepherd University?

Please return the completed application to Heidi Hanrahan via email: hhanraha@shepherd.edu no later than Monday, November 6, 2017.
